Re: Patent Application Number 10/665606
Modular human habitat simulator

Dear Sir:

In regards to the aforementioned patent application, applicant claimed small entity status in good faith at the time of the submission of the application. Upon closer inspection of the underlying facts, applicant believes the claim to a small entity filing was in error. Applicant now claims a large entity status and submits this letter to correct any fee deficiencies.

Pursuant to 37 CFR 1.28(c) and the Patent Fee Revisions in effect as of October 1, 2003, the following fee adjustment is submitted:

Item	Fee paid	New Fee	Deficiency
Basic fee	$375.00	$770.00	$395.00
0 extra claims	$0	$0	$0
1 extra independent claim	1x$42.00=$42.00	1x$86.00=$86.00	$44.00
Total			$439.00

Please send all correspondences to the address below and if you have any questions contact me at your convenience. Thank you.

Very truly yours,

Franklin E. Gibbs, Esq.

DECLARATION OF RICKIE LEE GOLIGHTLY

I, Rickie Lee Golightly, do hereby declare:

1. I am the corporate secretary of the managing member of Bigelow Development Aerospace Division, LLC (hereafter "Bigelow Aerospace").
2. Bigelow Aerospace is the assignee of all the rights in the patent application titled "Modular Human Habitat Simulator."
3. An error was made concerning the status of Bigelow Aerospace and this declaration is submitted to correct that error.
4. The application was originally filed claiming a small entity status. Subsequently, the status was changed to a large entity based upon an analysis that was not correct.
5. To resolve this issue, I have conducted a thorough investigation pursuant to MPEP § 509, et seq, 37 CFR § 1.27(f), and 13 CFR § 121.802 to establish whether or not Bigelow Aerospace is a small entity.
6. Based upon my investigation, it is my belief that Bigelow Aerospace qualifies as a small entity.

7. It is my belief that a request to the Small Business Administration for a size determination is not necessary.
8. I formally request that the aforementioned patent application be given small entity status.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the above is accurate and true to the best of my knowledge.

Executed at 1899 W. Brooks Avenue, North Las Vegas, NV 89032, on 10/30, 2003.
